

Show and Tell

November, 2021

Sonja Hagen

Scrappy Happy

It is made from Half Square Triangles I pieced as leaders and enders. My sister saw it on the design wall and asked to have it as her Christmas present, so I came up with a border design to expand it to Queen size. Leftover HSTs were used on the back. This is the EARLIEST I have even completed a Christmas present!

It was beautifully quilted by Laura Jarvis of Kootsi Quilting.

Meena Schaldenbrand

Dream Big

Quilted during a quilt along online and is gift for my granddaughter.

Jan Kosko

I want a different quilt for each season and am finally getting to it. This is the Hourglass pattern by Jenny Dolan. It's all from scraps. Since it was the beginning of the virus I made the back from scraps as well so the quilt is double sided.

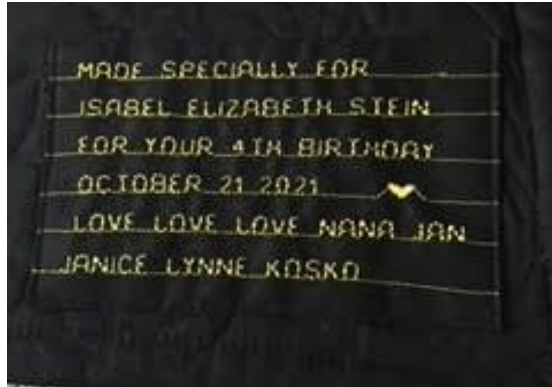

Made by Jan Kosko
Quilted by Jane Clark

Jan Kosko

Ella's Kitty Quilt

This quilt now belongs to our granddaughter Ella, a lover of all things CAT or KITTY. The fabric was given to me by Grace Boxer. The back is also pieced as I am not shopping.... I have her name (Ella) on the back in yellow fabric, her favorite color.

Mary Hogan

From classes with Cindy
Grisdela

Gayle Kush

This quilted wall hanging was started in a class I took from Irene Roderick called Dancing With the Wall Two Step. Irene has a totally different way of designing art quilts and is very good at teaching this method in such a way that it helps you get comfortable with your own choices. We were to limit our pallet to two fabrics. As you can see I didn't actually follow directions and that was okay with her as well. If you are interested in learning a different way to do improv work her classes and teaching style are very beginner friendly.

Katie McGrath

Ocean Treasures

Hand-dyed fabric background

Nancy Finlayson

Hearts Aflutter 3

This quilt is part of my Shabby Chic collection and will be donated to another organization as a silent auction quilt.

Quilted by Laura Jarvis of KootsiQuilting

