Leopard Lane

Here is a Country Lane design for a SafeHouse quilt. Due to the leopard print in the large squares, I call in Leopard Lane. I've used this pattern many times, and each time, it comes out differently, depending on whether I want to emphasize the diagonal grids, the background, or the print squares.

Attached is a photo of a SafeHouse quilt I made, and the second photo is the back. It's a really pretty China blue, but doesn't show up in the photo too much.

Nancy Finlayson

This is my second Twist and Stitch quilt for SafeHouse. I think it is difficult to get a pleasing color distribution with this pattern, but I love the way the pattern self-borders!

I do not know
who pieced
this. The horse quilt
was quilted
cowboy hats
and boots
pattern.
